I honestly cannot believe that it has been almost a whole year since you did so much for us! Your blood, sweat, tears, sweat, happiness, and the smile on your face just could not be duplicated. You are the most wonderful in the world! No words have been enough to express how much we all enjoy being around you. You are always so grateful for the attention you get and the adoration you receive. Thank you for everything! It is truly because of you all that 2007 had some of the best nights in our collective lives. I would give you my firstborn for a night if you asked me. You are a drug addict and we all need drugs to feel balanced. Seriously, I need you in my life all the time.
