Hyper Portal is a board game in which you write your own story. "Hyper Portals" opens the doors to three different dimensions that a computer game can offer. The ideological continuation of the project "Get Achievements for Achievements", explores abstractions and meanings. The game is about the choices that lead to different stories. Hyper Portals - a board game, where you can choose your own story! Share your stories with other players and their stories via social media. Hyper Portals is a board game for 8 players. (2 on each side). Small space for the players to work in. Players start with five lines on the board. The goal is to use these lines to write your own story. - For each line on the board, you create an action that will create a new line. - You can use up to five lines to create one story. On the board, people can write in the spaces that are not occupied by you. - Create stories that are equal, where each player is involved in the process of the creation of the story. For each story shared, you will receive a unique pin for social media. Depending on the given goals, you can create stories that are dominated by Science Fiction, the fairy tales of Hans Christian Andersen or a unique story. The game is designed to be social. To make sure everyone can enjoy the game, but also because in most cases the players will work together. Everyone has equal chances to win. Choose a portal to enter: The board will be divided into three parts: - The core of the game is the board itself. - The game area where you will build your story. - The area for you to decide your fate. When you are done building your story, you can make it public. When you decide to publish the story, you will have the chance to share your story with other players. In addition, you can publish your story on a website for others to see. Once your story has been published on a website, you can add pictures and videos. A minute later, players will get to see it on Facebook and Twitter. You can also add your name to the story. If you have been invited to play with others, they will be notified immediately. In this way, you and your friends can play together. Get the attention of other players and share your stories! When you write a story, you get a c9d1549cdd

vol. 2 In the Stars Series For fans of light novel series by Nisaba Primary Characters Elderine is a war-like clan of hunters and a powerful dragon. She hails from the outer realms of Heaven. Dark clouds lie covered over them due to an eruption of volcanoes and her clan has been forced to live underground for thousands of years. Regaining the Surface to live outside again has been a major goal since long ago. She gets along well with Mini after meeting her in a circumstance where they were both orphans. She has since visited her homeland and met with her uncle Viks. She has also met other families she got close to like the Four Harmonies alliance, though they are unaware of who and where she really is. So far Elderine hasn't disclosed to them about her family. She met Takao during an adventure with Iris and after losing one her baubles she ends up taking Takao's grandfather's. She like Kid because they are very childish. They also get along well with Usamaru and Mayu, but only on proper occasions, just like them and the other kids. Mini is rather similar to her, as they both belong to the child race; "Kludgers". Mini : The other maidan child of the Moss family, a very tiny version of Elderine who originally was a Kludger. Captive of Vai Lung: A dragon Elderine saved as a child. He leads her to Ellora the witch and it is through this encounter that her clan is changed and transformed to hunters of Elfin. They have recently resurfaced following their fight with fellow elves. Takao : Eldrine's faithful companion who owns a rather odd scent. The only person in the cast which gets along well with her. Other Characters Kosaku / Kudra: The leader of the Hawks, sister of Akuma. She seeks the abolition of excommunication and offer equal treatment for all hunters and the tribes. He supplies Elderine with the information about her life as an elf in Ellora's camp. Iris : The vice-leader of the Rubon who shared an intense bond with Elderine. As children they would spend their days together giving each other cheerful company and always trying to surprise each other. They have both joined the hunt nearly at the same time and are on good terms. They decided to remain apart from one another to accommodate their love for one another.

Yggdrasil is a visual novel series designed to promote mental health and emphasize the importance of self-care. Focusing on depression and anxiety, the game explores a common but negative aspect of modern existence: stress. By creating a visual novel that is both dark and surreal, it's hoped that it might open up the world of VN and show people that they have the power to do more than just survive in this global society. About the Written Word: The writing is excellent. Every chapter is written by professional writers, so no matter which category of the Visual Novel genre you want to enjoy, you will find a book that can be a good fit for you. However, this is not a game that is written in English. The people who created the game want their voice to be the one that everyone listens to. What made me pick up this VN was the fact that I wanted to support the company and their mission of depression and anxiety awareness and self-care for marginalized people. VN are typically quick one-time reads, but Yggdrasil makes it clear from the beginning that this is a game that wants to be read. The chapters aren't done and dusted, there is an entire book to be read. It'll take you hours upon hours to get through it. The dialogue is well written, the characters are interesting, and the plot is engaging. Plus, there are multiple endings, so you can choose your ending that you like. So, do yourself a favor and grab this book and see what it can give you. About the Game You play an average student. You have about $5,000 in debt. Your parents don't support you. You have a part-time job, but it doesn't pay much. You have an active social life — everyone else in your university is doing the same. But what if I told you that after school, you start work as a nail salon attendant? Or you become a bookkeeper for the biggest book store in town? A bartender? Or even a weather reporter? Would that even be possible? Who would you be? There's more — there's a lot of more than you could imagine, and there's a hell of a lot more to this story than just running your life away from your problems. But keep reading, you won't be bored!
