CRACK KMSAuto Net 2018 V1.6.4 Portable--All Windows acctive.Tuesday, December 1, 2011 For the last week I have been living in a different time zone. (or really, in a different age, lol) What can I say, I have been here for way too long and need to get back to school. I have been catching up on my studying and loosing weight. I am currently at 31.4 kilo's...not ideal but it is what it is. I think I am having a craving for the goodies that are commonly served during the holidays...candies, chocolates, biscuits and other goodies that will wreck my small waistline (and I am big enough right now) I have a confession to make...I am not that hard to pin down. I understand why people do the 10 pin school thing and there are times that I have to do the same. I am very reliable and I will turn up to most events or appointments. I just can't drop everything at a moments notice.
