Cross-sectional associations between functional health status in later life, in this case, health-related quality of life (HRQoL) and personality variables, were examined. One hundred elderly participants completed measures of neuroticism, extraversion, openness to experience, positive and negative affect. The participants reported their own functioning in terms of physical and mental health, and cognitive functioning. Structural equation modeling was used to examine the contribution of personality variables to HRQoL. Neuroticism was a significant predictor of both HRQoL and cognitive functioning (pQ: Does this treatment for fatigue increase, rather than decrease immunity? I am researching natural ways to combat fatigue. I have seen various treatment for fatigue, such as drinking coconut water and eating raw almonds. However, I have also seen websites, like this one, that tout coconut water and raw almonds as being immune boosting and anti-fatigue treatments. Are the websites that show coconut water as a cure for fatigue bunk? I have searched the internet, but could not find an answer. If they are bogus, why are these common natural treatment 6d1f23a050
